2017-18 AAAC LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Procedure: information must reflect your academic status at the time of application. Return completed application no later than Oct. 2, 2017 with the following information:

- A typed letter or essay (500 words or less) to the VCU Alumni's African-American Alumni Council (AAAC) Scholarship Committee expressing your desire/supporting reasons for receiving a scholarship and describing activities displaying leadership, campus, and community involvement,
- Two typed letters of recommendation (one personal and one professional),
- A resume that includes honors, school and community activities, work experience, etc.,
- Current transcript (an unofficial transcript is acceptable; the scholarship recipient will be asked to furnish an official transcript).

Requirements:

- Must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 at the time of application,
- Full time (at least 12 credit hours) Monroe Park campus sophomore, junior or senior,
- Must be financial aid eligible as determined by the VCU Financial Aid Office.

If your application package is incomplete in any way, it will not be considered. The scholarship recipient will be selected by mid-October and notified by e-mail afterwards. Your name may be publicly announced and you may be asked to attend an AAAC meeting. Visit the AAAC web site at: <http://go.vcu.edu/aaac> for more information about the organization.

* Preference will be given to "under represented" or "economically disadvantaged" applicants as described in their essay.
